Tyler A. Canonico is the Minister of Music and Organist at Market Square Presbyterian Church in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. He is a graduate of the University of Alabama in Tuscaloosa, Alabama where he received a Master of Music in Organ Performance. Tyler received his Bachelor of Arts in Music with a concentration in Organ Performance and Sacred Music from Lebanon Valley College in Annville, Pennsylvania.

Mr. Canonico is also the organist for the Harrisburg Symphony Orchestra, a co-founding member of Allegro con Fuoco, a keyboard duo with Jordan R. Markham, and is the Collaborative Pianist for the Central Pennsylvania Womyn’s Chorus. Tyler is the Sub Dean for the Harrisburg Chapter of the American Guild of Organists. He has also served as the Director of Music and Organist at First United Methodist Church in Palmyra, Pennsylvania.

In July 2012, at the American Guild of Organists National Convention in Nashville, Tennessee, Tyler’s performance of “This Little Light of Mine” by Connecticut jazz organist and composer, Dr. Joe Utterback, thrilled the audience and especially the composer. This performance inspired Dr. Utterback to compose an organ arrangement of the well-known spiritual, “Joshua Fit the Battle of Jericho,” which he dedicated to Tyler.

You can learn more about Mr. Canonico at his website - www.tylercanonico.com.

The Möller Organ, Opus 3407, was installed in 1922. Enlarged in 2000, it consists of two manuals and ten ranks, and includes Walker digital stops.

The next event in the Arts at First Presbyterian is our All-Choirs and friends concert streaming on November 22.

Also join us on December 23 for the Three Divas Jazz Trio
