Lent is a time for reflection. As we move into Lent and during Lent, the Music, Worship, & Arts committee is asking that everyone worshipping join the committee, pastor, and choir members in taking a moment at the end of each Sunday worship service to reflect and meditate during the postlude.

If you must leave worship early, please leave quietly and peacefully to allow others to listen to the postlude.

From the Pastor

William G. Carter

Dear Friends,

Did you know that Presbyterians assist those who are greatly afflicted by blizzards, storms, and flooding? Yes, we do that through Presbyterian Disaster Assistance, one of the beneficiaries of our upcoming One Great Hour of Sharing offering during Lent!

This wonderful ministry provides help in three primary ways:

1. Financial support to the needs of a community in the wake of the disaster. These funds are used in a variety of ways depending on the needs in the community and the gaps left by other responding agencies. There are no set rules about the use of the money, with two exceptions: (a) Funds are not used to make direct cash payments to survivors, so as to avoid becoming an entitlement program without accountability. (b) Funds may not be used as a loan. Assistance is a free gift of the church., based on need.
2. Funds frequently are used to set up the long-term recovery program in the community. Following a disaster many organizations provide funds for survivors. The Red Cross, FEMA and Salvation Army assist with food, clothing and shelter. However, no governmental funds will support the cost of the organization to coordinate the ongoing use of volunteers, donated materials and case management. These organizations are essential for the long-term recovery of the community.
3. Support for Spiritual and Emotional Care for the Caregivers. When disaster strikes the church has a special responsibility to those who are most vulnerable to the secondary stresses of responding to the needs of others: pastors, church leaders and caregivers. Church funds are used to ensure that the spiritual needs of church leaders, pastors and caregivers are available to the community.

I am proud to be part of a Christian fellowship that takes human need seriously. As I see news reports of natural disasters around our nation and world, I take heart that Presbyterians are present to alleviate suffering. Together let's support One Great Hour of Sharing, as a way to heal some of the hurts of our world!

Yours in faith, hope, and love,

Rev. Bill

MISSION AND JUSTICE

Souper Bowl of Caring February 7

The Souper Bowl of Caring utilizes Super Bowl weekend in America to mobilize people to fight hunger and poverty in their local communities. Collections will be taken after the 10:00 service and the money collected will go to the Abington Ecumenical Food Pantry in Dalton to assist people in need in our area.

Camp & Conference Ministries Sunday February 14

Camp is a good model for community. At camp, children and adults alike have a great opportunity to demonstrate all that Christ called us to do: to be patient, kind, forgiving and loving—in a beautiful setting. The community made of campers and staff is a very practical example of what the church can be. Camp is a place where all can be welcome, regardless of their gifts or skills.

Camp Lackawanna, our local Presbyterian camp in the Endless Mountains, offers such a community. In their words, "Camp Lackawanna is the living sanctuary where people of all ages come to experience God's creation and the grace of Jesus Christ through prayer, fellowship, and learning to care for the natural world and one another." Take some time to pray for Camp Lackawanna and the impact it has on campers and staff.

Blue Shirt Sunday February 14

For years, Presbyterian Disaster Assistance has been identified with the blue T-shirts worn by volunteers who come and work to repair damaged homes and provide comfort to those whose lives have been disrupted by a disaster. The color blue was chosen to represent the blue tarps that provide temporary shelter in disasters, protecting people and their possessions. The blue shirts that proclaim "Out of Chaos, Hope" have become a beacon in communities rocked to the core by disaster.

February 14, the first Sunday in Lent, has been designated as "Wear your blue T-shirt to church Sunday," a testament to one of the ways One Great Hour of Sharing makes a difference. If you haven't been a volunteer and don't have a blue T-shirt, you can wear other blue clothing to support the work of PDA.

Calling all artists ... and makers of delicious chili

Anyone interested in submitting art work to the FPC Art Show (see above), please contact Elaine Tweedy through email (elainetweedy@gmail.com) or cell phone (570-575-1705) before February 5. Artists will need to fill out submission forms and provide the title of your artwork for publication and labeling purposes. Art work submitted must be different from what was submitted last year. It would need to be dropped off on February 11 between 3:00 and 5:00 p.m. at the church, to be hung that evening. Elaine hopes for enthusiastic participation by church members.

Northeast Photography will hold an opening to their juried show on the evening of Friday, February 12, from 6:00 - 8:00 p.m. which will include light refreshments. The Art Show will continue through Saturday, and will be open while the church is open on Sunday, February 14. Artwork pick up will be Sunday at Noon.

Pots of Chili are Needed: The Chili Cafe will be open on Saturday, February 13 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. We are looking for folks to bring pots of chili for our Chili Cook-off that day. Please contact John Conklin (570-563-0211) or Karen White (570-563-2135) by Sunday, February 7 if you can bring some chili.

Chapel Choir Notes

submitted by Kay Ten Eyck

*"Love is patient, love is kind. Love is gentle, love divine. Love forgives, is never rude. Love rejoices in the truth."
Roger Thornhill based on I Corinthians 13:4-7*

For the February 14th worship service, the Chapel Choir will be singing an anthem based on I Corinthians 13. The refrain tells us to "Love one another, as God has also loved you." We look forward to sharing this message with the congregation.

We love wearing our red robes and would like to have new stoles to wear with our robes. We are researching to find our best option. One suggestion was to have a local person sew them instead of going through a robes company. Do you sew or know someone who sews? Please contact Kay or the church office if you think you could make new stoles for us.

Helpers Needed!

The W.A.Y. is looking for people to help with our meals. You are welcome to help once in a while, once a month, or whenever you are able!

You can help by:

- Cooking or helping to cook a main dish

- Helping with setup Helping with cleanup

If you can contribute, please contact Jana Schillinger or any member of CE committee.

Youth Fellowship

This month, youth in grades 4-12

are invited to join us on

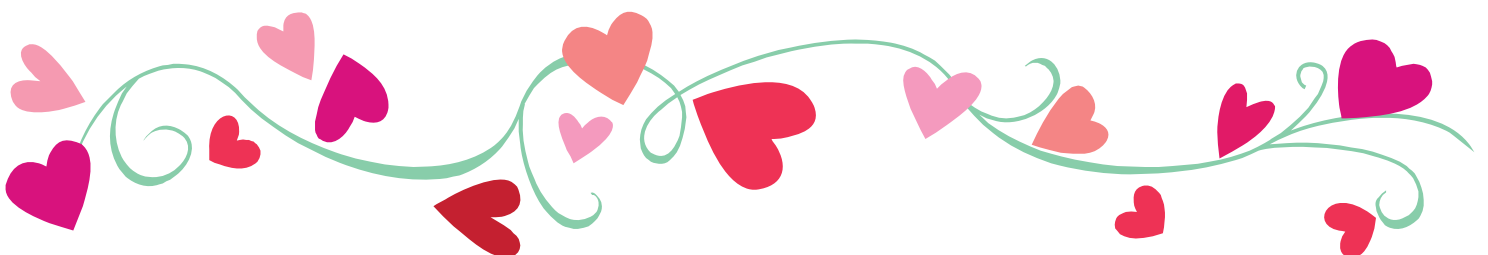

Friday, February 19

from 6:30-8:30 p.m.

Church Family Feud.

January was a busy month with our snow birds already down south and several others away or unable to attend so we decided to cancel our meeting. That brings our next meeting to February 25th at Gwynne Gilbert's home. We will be discussing All the Light We Cannot See by Anthony Doerr. Does the world need yet another novel about WWII? It does when the novel is as inventive and beautiful as this one by Anthony Doerr. In fact, All the Light We Cannot See--while set mostly in Germany and France before and during the war--is not really a "war novel." Yes, there is fear and fighting and disappearance and death, but the author's focus is on the interior lives of his two characters. Marie Laure is a blind, 14-year-old French girl who flees to the countryside when her father disappears from Nazi-occupied Paris. Werner is a gadget-obsessed German orphan whose skills admit him to a brutal branch of Hitler Youth. Never mind that their paths don't cross until very late in the novel, this is not a book you read for plot (although there is a wonderful, mysterious subplot about a stolen gem). This is a book you read for the beauty of Doerr's writing-- "Abyss in her gut, desert in her throat, Marie Laure takes one of the cans of food..."--and for the way he understands and cherishes the magical obsessions of childhood. Marie Laure and Werner are never quaint or twee. Instead they are powerful examples of the way average people in trying times must decide daily between morality and survival.

Stephen Ministry does more than help the care receivers get through a struggle they are having. It also enriches the lives of our Stephen Leaders and Stephen Ministers. At our meetings, we frequently share how the training has enabled us to handle everyday situations and reach out with love and caring to family and friends. Here is what one Stephen Minister from another congregation has to say about what being a Stephen Minister means to him.

Ray | Physician

Stephen Ministry is a priority in my life. I use the tools in all kinds of situations—in my Stephen Ministry caring relationship and also in my interactions at home, at church, at work, and with neighbors. It becomes part of your lifestyle. I also credit Stephen Ministry with giving me the tools to be a better physician. I've learned to hear each patient's story and know the patient's heart. Instead of looking at office visits as one more thing to get through, I see each patient as a divine appointment God has provided for me that day.

Joys and Sorrows

Nicholas Garet Cochrane was born January 5, 2016, son of Sean Sr. and Heather Cochrane. Nicholas' grandparents are Dick and Marie Cochrane. Nicholas has 3 big brothers: Sean Jr., Michael, and Joseph. That's a busy household! Congratulations to all.

The baptism of Aileen Rose Taylor took place on January 3, 2016. Aileen was born on July 14, 2015. She is the daughter of Grant and Allyson Taylor and her grandparents are Robert and Karen Taylor. Congratulations and blessings to all!

The sympathy of the congregation is extended to Kate Hopkins and family on the passing of her sister, Ann Kennedy.

Office Volunteers

As coordinator for our "Office Volunteers", I want to personally thank all of them for their kind and dedicated work on a daily basis in the church office during these past years. As you can imagine, this is a wonderful way to express your love and commitment to your church in a simple and easy manner.

As our church ages, so do all of us. Past volunteers have departed for various and justifiable reasons, thus opening up days within the week where simple but important duties are untended and much needed.

I'm asking for additional volunteers who can give their church three hours (9 a.m. to 12 noon) on a regular basis, one day a week.

Additionally, an "on-call" listing will be created to assist when substitutes are needed.

Thank you for your consideration in assisting your church in this manner and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Cordially yours,
Sandra Bailey
