March 2017

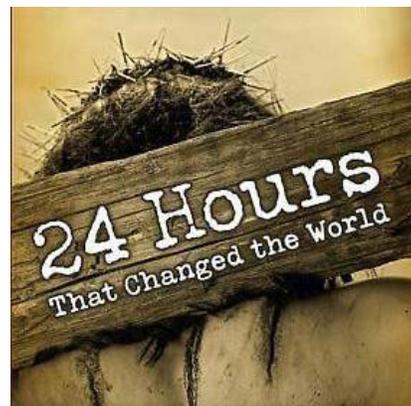

The First Presbyterian Church of Clarks Summit

Lent is the Season for Learning

Join us for our weekly adult education on Wednesdays

On Wednesdays in Lent, we gather for 24 Hours That Changed the World. Based on the popular book by Adam Hamilton, these weekly sessions will help us understand the significance of Jesus' suffering and death. Hamilton retraces the day that changed human history in a straightforward and conversational style that speaks to both long-time Christians and those who are curious about Christ's crucifixion.

The weekly sessions will draw upon insights from history, archaeology, geography, and Biblical accounts. We will view the sites in the Holy Land where the events of Holy Week took place, and walk with Jesus as he traveled the road that led to the pain and triumph of the cross. Join us each Wednesday in Room 206 at 6:15 p.m.

Also available in Lent: In Room 210, we will have a gathering to view Ancient Roads from Christ to Constantine, an outstanding video history of the early church from PBS. Each week will lead us on a visually stunning journey to the beautiful and important places of early Christianity, starting from where Christianity was born, growing from a small movement called "The Way," to its eventual place as the official religion of the Roman Empire. See you in Room 210 at 6:15 p.m.

Each Wednesday we welcome 30 to 35 adults in our Adult Education Classes! Won't you join us and see what captures the interest of so many?

Daylight Savings Time Begins March 12th.

Spring Forward.

Don't forget to set your clocks ahead 1 hour Saturday Night March 11th.

From the Pastor

March 2017

As I write these words, there is noise on the sanctuary roof. You may know that we are having repairs on the slate above our worship space. Apparently a previous contractor had drilled holes through the stone panels to attach some materials. This was not done carefully, and allowed rain water to seep through and create some rot in the plywood beneath.

It's a captivating metaphor for what can happen to our lives.

Lent is the season to address the "inner rot." Where has damage seeped in? What have we been neglecting? How do we acknowledge the punctures - and what might we do to repair them?

For me, it prompts any number of personal questions:

- ◆ If I have doubts about the goodness of God, how can I find out more about God by reading the Bible?
- ◆ If my life is confusing and cluttered, what could I do to center my spirit?
- ◆ If I bear a grudge against a person that I have come to hate, how can I release it?
- ◆ If I am feeling despair after reading the daily news, what can I do to reclaim my hope and work for good?
- ◆ If we are disgusted about the enormous disparity between those who have a lot and those who have little, how could I simplify my life and share what I have with those in need?
- ◆ If there are personal habits that are sapping the health out of my body and spirit, how can I replace them with practices that increase my well-being?
- ◆ If I am feeling distant from God, what could I do to draw closer?

The spiritual disciplines of the Christian life can help: Bible reading, meditation, confession and forgiveness, generosity, good works, care for the physical body, and prayer. We provide opportunities to officially gather as a church family to do and encourage these practices. If you ever want to drop by for coffee and talk about them one-on-one, I would always welcome that.

It's Lent. Spring training for the soul!

Gratefully yours,

Rev. Bill Carter

Presbyterian Women

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN MEET MARCH 21

In our previous six lessons, we have studied "Who is Jesus" according to the canonical gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke and John), the Pauline epistles and Hebrews. The context and perspective of the authors help shape the lenses through which they see and present Jesus.

This month's lesson will discuss some non-canonical gospels – gospels not included in our New Testament. Can we see why these writings do not reflect the Jesus that came to dominate the world of Christianity? Yet, can they help us better see the diversity of early Christianity reflected by a small group of Jesus' followers in particular areas?

On the third Tuesday of each month, we welcome all women to join us in any circle at a time that fits for you. Dorcas Circle meets at 10:00 a.m., Priscilla Circle meets at 1:30 p.m. and Eunice Circle meets at 7:00 p.m. All meet at the church. We learn together and the fellowship is GREAT!

We will meet at Barbara Brown's home on March 23rd at 7:00. Join us for a discussion of Princess: A True Story of Life Behind the Veil in Saudi Arab by Jean P. Sasson. Sultana is a Saudi Arabian princess, a woman born to fabulous, uncountable wealth. She has four mansions on three continents, her own private jet, glittering jewels, designer dresses galore. But in reality she lives in a gilded cage. She has no freedom, no control over her own life, no value but as a bearer of sons. Hidden behind her black floor-length veil, she is a prisoner, jailed by her father, her husband, her sons, and her country. Sultana is a member of the Saudi royal family, closely related to the king. For the sake of her daughters, she has decided to take the risk of speaking out about the life of women in her country, regardless of their rank. She must hide her identity for fear that the religious leaders in her country would call for her death to punish her honesty. Only a woman in her position could possibly hope to escape from being revealed and punished, despite her cloak and anonymity.

Sultana tells of her own life, from her turbulent childhood to her arranged marriage--a happy one until her husband decided to displace her by taking a second wife--and of the lives of her sisters, her friends and her servants. Although they share affection, confidences and an easy camaraderie within the confines of the women's quarters, they also share a history of appalling oppressions, everyday occurrences that in any other culture would be seen as shocking human rights violations; thirteen-year-old girls forced to marry men five times their age, young women killed by drowning, stoning, or isolation in the women's room, a padded, windowless cell where women are confined with neither light nor conversation until death claims them. By speaking out, Sultana risks bringing the wrath of the Saudi establishment upon her head and the heads of her children. But by telling her story to Jean Sasson, Sultana has allowed us to see beyond the veils of this secret society, to the heart of a nation where sex, money, and power reign supreme.

Notes from the Chapel Choir and the Alleluia Choir submitted by Kay Ten Eyck

"The fact that children make beautiful music is less significant than the fact that music makes children beautiful."--Cheryl Lavender

Thank you to our adult musicians who helped the Chapel Choir make a joyful noise in February! Ringers Meg Hatch, Judy Cutler and Frank Jones and our accompanist, Alan Baker, added a sparkle to our February anthem, "Bless God's Holy Name". We appreciate the support our adults give to us and our program!

The new Alleluia Choir is blossoming. Our February anthem, Cantar!, gave us a wonderful opportunity to celebrate the joy of God's love. Thank you to Frank Jones for giving a little rhythm to our Cuba salsa anthem.

Our Chapel Choir Lenten anthem is simple and beautiful, focusing on forgiveness. The Alleluia Choir will sing a John Horman anthem set to the words of John 3:16. "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life."

Looking ahead, we are preparing a special anthem as a combined choir for Palm Sunday. We are also looking forward to attending Music in the Parks Saturday, May 20th.

Adventures in the Bible

Are you ready for a new adventure?

Join us on Sunday mornings from 9:00 – 9:45 as we prepare for worship in a special way. We spend time getting to know each other and developing our knowledge of the Bible through storytelling, activities, crafts, and songs. Teachers tell the story, and children get a chance to retell or reenact it through "Godly Play." Crafts, activities, and songs reinforce the lesson and give children a chance to express what they have understood. The only thing we are missing is YOU!

Stephen Ministry

I have a dog. His name is Dexter. Dexter is a five-year-old Brittany rescue.

We get along well. I feed him, walk him and let him chase all the fur-bearing animals out of my yard. When I have an issue, I talk to Dexter and he sits and listens to me ramble.

Sometimes when I have to go away Dexter goes to the Little Red Dog House. He has a friend there named Jim. Dexter runs with the other dogs but he tends to shy away from them; he seeks out his friend Jim with whom he finds comfort.

I say this because when we humans need somebody to tell our problems to, we turn to Jesus; but sometimes we would like to talk to a person who could assist us by listening to our problems and possibly offering suggestions concerning the issue at hand.

You can talk to a Stephen Minister who will listen to you, pray with you and keep all your thoughts private. A Stephen Minister can work with you at your convenience for as long as you need and can seek other avenues to support you.

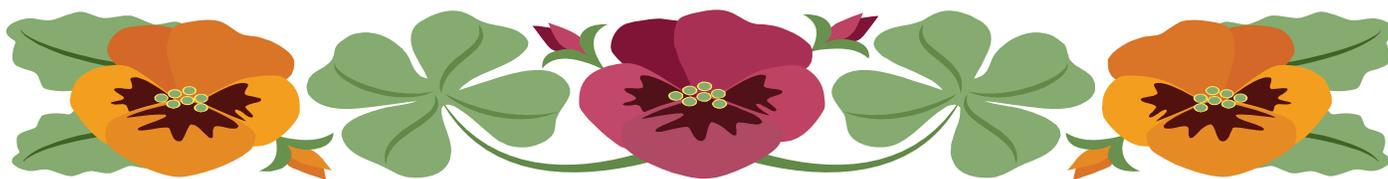

Dexter has Jim to console him. Stephen Ministers are here for you. It only takes a phone call.

Welsh Song Festival featuring Voices of the Valley Choir Sunday, March 26, 2017 at 4:00 p.m.

This concert will feature songs from our region's Welsh heritage, as performed by Voices of the Valley Choir, a select vocal ensemble from Valley View High School that will be traveling to Wales next summer. During their trip, the group will sing with three of the top Welsh choirs and Ysgol Bro Dynefwr, a local high school choir. The ensemble is directed by Valley View music teacher Gina Pascolini. For this concert they will be joined at times by the FPC adult choir, and there will also be an opportunity for the audience to join in singing familiar Welsh hymns. A traditional te bach (reception) will be held following the concert.

The concert is open to the public, free of charge, and we encourage you to invite your friends to hear this excellent high school choir. A free-will offering will be taken, with the proceeds going to the choir to help pay for their trip this summer as ambassadors for our region. Hope to see you there!
