

First Presbyterian Church

Service for the Lord's Day
Sixteenth Sunday after Pentecost

September 25, 2022

10:00 a.m.

Grant us, Lord, not to be anxious about earthly cares, but to love that which is above, and even now, while we live among transient things, to hold fast to those things that shall endure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever. Amen.

In preparation for worship, please turn off all cell phones and electronic devices.

ASSEMBLE IN GOD'S NAME

Words of Welcome

Prelude "The Church of Christ Cannot Be Bound" arr. Gilbert Martin

Call to Worship

Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

This is the day the Lord has made.

Let us rejoice and be glad in it.

* Hymn 738

"O Master, Let Me Walk with Thee"

Ushers will collect prayer request cards from the center aisle.

Call to Confession

* Prayer of Confession

Eternal God, our judge and redeemer,
we confess that we have tried to hide from you,
for we have done wrong.

We have lived for ourselves,
and apart from you.

We have turned from our neighbors,
and refused to bear the burdens of others.

We have ignored the pain of the world,
and passed by the hungry, the poor, and the oppressed.

In your great mercy forgive our sins and free us from selfishness,
that we may choose your will and obey your commandments;
through Jesus Christ our Savior.

* Silent Confession

* Assurance of Pardon and Passing of the Peace

* Response 447 "We Are Forgiven"

We are forgiven! We are forgiven. Thanks be to God. Thanks be to God.
We are forgiven! We are forgiven. Thanks be to God. Thanks be to God.

PROCLAIM GOD'S WORD

Prayer for Illumination

Psalter: Psalm 91:1-6, 14-16 (Hymn 43)

A Time with Children

RESPOND TO GOD'S WORD

* Hymn "Outside My Gate, Outside My Door" (to Hymn 847)

1. Outside my gate, outside my door,
is someone there who's lost or poor?
Is someone there I do not see — that I walk by — who has a need?
2. Is there a child who longs for care?
An older friend who needs a prayer?
Someone who seeks a helping hand?
A refugee new to this land?
3. Outside our church, is someone near who cries in pain, who lives in fear?
Is someone close who has no way
to buy the food she needs this day?
4. Some gates are made of wood or stone,
And some are made of sin alone.
Some doors are made of greed and pride;
They also keep the poor outside.
5. As we look out, Christ, may we see our common, shared humanity.
May we kneel down and serve you more outside our gate, outside our door.

* Affirmation of Faith: Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord;

who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried;
he descended into hell;

the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand
of God the Father Almighty;

from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church;
the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

During September, a Season of Peace (as designated by the national Presbyterian Church) will be observed for four weeks from Sunday September 4th until World Communion

Sunday on October 2nd. As we celebrate this Season of Peace and collect our special offering for Peace and Global Witness, look for a basket at the rear of the church filled with heart-shaped cards. Inspired by our friends at the N a Sonje Foundation in Haiti, who inscribed FPCCS inside their Choukoun Heart, we've put the names of some of our long-time friends in Haiti inside some of the hearts and written "Peace be with you" on the outside. We've also created some other hearts with names of local refugee families and ESL students we've been helping on the inside and "Welcome, Friends" on the outside. Please take some of these and add inside your own appropriate message of welcome, encouragement, a prayer, or scripture verse, then bring them back and put them in the offering plate. We'll deliver them to our new neighbors and send photos of them to our friends in Haiti. Children (and children at heart) are also encouraged to take some and decorate them. Share your peace!

We are co-sponsoring a CROP Walk with the Abington Ecumenical Ministerium to raise funds - and awareness - to address hunger in our area. It will begin at the Dalton Fire Company at 2:00 p.m. on Sunday, October 2, and take place along the Countryside Conservancy's Trolley Trail. For information or to signup, go to www.crophungerwalk.org/clarkssummitpa/
