September 2015

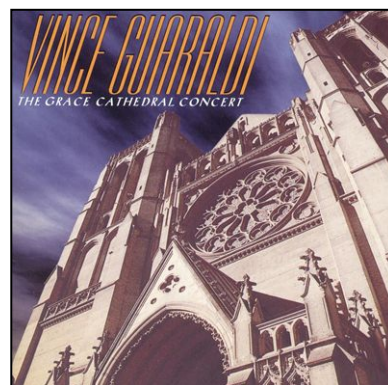

The First Presbyterian Church of Clarks Summit

“It’s a Holy Hootenanny, Charlie Brown!”

Jazz Communion slated for Sunday, September 6

We are delighted to offer a very special Jazz Communion service on Sunday, September 6, at 10:00 a.m. For our 24th annual service, we celebrate the 50th anniversary of the first jazz mass ever presented in America. It was composed by Vince Guaraldi, who went on to great fame as the composer for over a dozen Peanuts animated specials, including A Charlie Brown Christmas, also 50 years old this year.

Commissioned for the inaugural year of San Francisco’s Grace Cathedral, the 1965 work offers a fresh musical interpretation of the worship music of one of the great Episcopal cathedrals of the world. Because the music was never published, much less written down, it has rarely been heard.

As a special treat, we will welcome California author Derrick Bang as our guest for the event. Derrick has written the biography Vince Guaraldi at the Piano, and is the national expert of Guaraldi’s work. He will deliver a talk about Guaraldi and the mass at 9:30 a.m., immediately before the service. Please make every effort to come and hear him.

The W.A.Y. Kick-Off!

What’s the Buzz about The W.A.Y.?

Come and find out SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 13 following worship in Fellowship Hall.

There will be food, activities for all ages, details about The W.A.Y., and more!

Calling All Golfers—Help young campers go to camp

The Annual Camp Lackawanna Golf Tournament that helps to fund scholarships (camperships) to summer campers will be held at Shadowbrook Golf Course in Tunkhannock on Saturday, September 26.

Registration is from 8:00 to 8:45 a.m. At 9:00 we begin the Shotgun start. A luncheon will be held at 1:30. Cost for the whole event is $85.

Check the Presbytery website lackawannapresby.org for more details and registration.

Notes from the Session & Deacons Meeting on August 11, 2015

Beverly Bright, Clerk of Session

1. Session and Deacons met and had a discussion on different ways we can be a friendlier church, reaching our visitors and concerns from our membership. There was a conversation about our church vision.
2. Finance talked about our financial needs and budgets for the 2016 year. Chairs were given budgets to prepare.

We love children in worship!

This fall, as children enter worship, they will be offered a children's Bible and handouts to help them follow along with the service. You will also notice each pew has a laminated guide that explains how children can engage in worship.

During this time our Joyful Noise! program will be on hold.

The Presbyterian deadline for
The October issue is
September 18, 2015

The Presbyter is a monthly newsletter of the First Presbyterian Church, 300 School Street, Clarks Summit, PA 18411.

All visitors are welcome to worship with us.

Worship services are held on Sunday mornings at 10:00 a.m. Child care is available. Communion is observed the first Sunday of every month.

If you do not attend a church in this area, we invite you to any and all of the events, programs, and worship services described in this newsletter. Please call the church office to arrange child care. Our sanctuary and Fellowship Hall are both handicapped accessible.

Relax, Relate, Renew

Presbyterian Women will begin their study year with a new model of Relax, Relate and Renew.

This year, we will meet on September 15 at 6:00 PM in the church fellowship hall. We will share a potluck supper, catch up on each other's lives, and be briefed by Rev. Rebecca Tanner on our upcoming study, "And Let Everyone Who Is Thirsty Come, Come to the Waters". Our first circle meeting day of the year will be September 29. All women are invited. Circles meet at 10:00 a.m., 1:30 p.m., and 7:00 p.m.

From the Pastor

William G. Carter

Ever notice how good things can happen when you aren't expecting them? Let me tell you the back story of how this year's jazz communion came to be.

After our jazz service last Christmas Eve, I gave some thought to how the service could be freshened up. Indeed it has been a successful annual tradition, resulting in a good crowd, a televised holiday concert on WVIA, and a CD/DVD to extend our church's outreach. But Christmas morning, I was musing that eight years of the same music had gotten a little stale. What might we do?

After a sip of eggnog, it occurred to me that 2015 is the 50th anniversary of A Charlie Brown Christmas. Why not build next year's service around that? Come December 24, we will do just that. But then, after another sip, it struck me 2015 is also the 50th anniversary of the first jazz mass in America. It was composed by Vince Guaraldi, the same composer who wrote the Peanuts music. Could we present that in September for the Labor Day weekend service? Well, why not?

A quick flurry of e-mails with the Grace Cathedral staff in San Francisco confirmed my fear that none of the mass existed in written form. Guaraldi never wrote it down! So the music would need to be transcribed from the recording. That took months for me to do.

Along the way, serendipities happened. I heard from Derrick Bang, Guaraldi's biographer, who was exhilarated at the idea. He put me in touch with filmmaker Andrew Thomas, who sent me an unreleased DVD about Guaraldi's life. I heard also from Rev. Charles Gompertz, the Episcopal priest who first commissioned the mass. All were greatly enthusiastic.

And then I mentioned all of this to my friend Jim Martinez, jazz pianist from Sacramento and Guaraldi fan. Pretty soon, he set up a concert of Guaraldi's mass music at Grace Cathedral, used my transcriptions, and invited me to come out and take part. That was on August 15. It was a hoot, and all the aforementioned principals were there.

So that is what we are doing on September 6: presenting the Guaraldi Jazz Mass as our annual jazz communion. To my great delight, Derrick Bang (pictured above at Grace Cathedral) will be with us. At 9:30 a.m. on the 6th, immediately prior to the service, he will offer a talk on Guaraldi and his work in the sanctuary. And then, I tell you, our 24th annual jazz service will be a real treat. You won't want to miss it.

We are called to use our creative skills for God's glory and for the improvement of the world. With his delightful music, Guaraldi followed the leads of Mozart and Bach to do just that. Sometimes it becomes clear that God is behind all of it, sparking creativity, creating new friendships, enlarging our imagination, and inviting us to use our abilities to make something beautiful.

See you on Sunday,

Rev. Bill Carter

Board of Deacons

Care Team Ministry Coordinators are:

Independent & Assisted Living:	Sara Ann Hosier	587-0371
Emergency Needs:	Donna Kepler	587-2729
Time of Loss:
Emergency Home Repair/ Maintenance:	Joe Waters	586-7233
	Greg Matthews	587-2644

Please let the Board of Deacons Care Team Coordinators or the church office know if anyone is in need of care.

We're here to care for FPC members and friends and we count on all of you to let us know when help is needed. This is our ministry and our Christian privilege to care for you.

The Stephen Ministers and Stephen Leaders will be holding 2 classes during The W.A.Y. this fall. Watch the schedule to see when we will be there, then come to learn more about this ministry. You will have the opportunity to learn a bit about some of the techniques we use. The Stephen Ministers will share how being a part of this program has enriched their lives and helped them help others in their lives. We hope you will come and find out why we are passionate about the Stephen Ministry Program and hope you will be equally inspired. Join us on October 14th and 21st to learn more about this ministry.

STATE HOSPITAL LUNCHEON October 6th-NOON

Please join us for lunch and fellowship with our guests.

All are welcome! If you have never attended and have some questions, please don't hesitate to call Janet Dobson @ 570-563-1881.

Tired of the clutter in your home? Wish you could get better organized? Join us on Sept 24th at 7:00 at Connie Weiss' home as we discuss The Life Changing Magic of Tidying Up: The Japanese Art of Decluttering and Organizing by Marie Kondo. Marie "KonMari" Kondo runs an acclaimed consulting business in Tokyo helping clients transform their cluttered homes into spaces of serenity and inspiration. With a three-month waiting list, her KonMari Method of decluttering and organizing has become an international phenomenon. The Life-Changing Magic of Tidying Up is a best seller in Japan, Germany, and the UK, with more than two million copies sold worldwide, and has been turned into a television drama for Japanese TV. She has been named one of the 100 most influential people in the world by Time, featured on more than thirty major Japanese television and radio programs, and profiled in the Sunday Times, Red magazine, You magazine, the New York Times, USA Today, NPR's Here & Now, Slate, Family Circle, and the London Times, who has deemed her "Japan's preeminent guru of tidiness, a warrior princess in the war on clutter."

2015-2016 Arts at First Presbyterian concert series

The 2015-2016 Arts at First Presbyterian concert series is one of our most exciting and ambitious seasons ever. It features the eagerly anticipated return of the Excelsior Cornet Band, which delighted us two years ago with a performance of Civil War music. They will perform an evening of patriotic music at the start of the Memorial Day holiday weekend next May. A month earlier Al Hamme will bring his eight-piece Swing Street Jazztet and vocalist to the church for a swinging evening of jazz favorites. Violinist Mark Woodyatt and the Electric City Swing Band will entertain in March, performing the music of the 1920's, 30's, and 40's in the style of hot jazz or hot swing. Other events include violinist John Vaida and a few of his Eastman School music friends performing as a piano quartet to open the season in October, our all-church recital in November, and our Clarks Summit Ice Festival activities in February, 2016. Please mark these dates on your calendar:

Sunday, October 25, 2015	4:00 pm	John Vaida Piano Quartet
Sunday, November 22, 2015	4:00 pm	All-church recital
Friday thru Sunday, February 12-14, 2016		Ice Festival activities
Sunday, March 6, 2016	4:00 pm	Electric City Swing Band
Sunday, April 17, 2016	4:00 pm	Al Hamme's Swing Street Jazztet
Friday, May 20, 2016	7:00 pm	Excelsior Cornet Band

All concerts and events will be held at the church. They are open to the public, free of charge; a free-will offering is taken to help defray the costs of the events. We receive some financial support from state and county grants, but rely heavily on the support of individual donors to produce the series.

Please consider supporting the Arts Series at First Presbyterian Church. Donations may be made payable to:

First Presbyterian Church
300 School Street
Clarks Summit, PA 18411

Donor Levels:

Whole Note $500 and above
Half Note $250—$499
Quarter Note $100—$249
Eighth Note $50—$99
Sixteenth Note $1—$49

Donors will be recognized in the program.

Christian Education

It's for life!

THE W.A.Y.

The Wednesday Addults and Youth Christian Education

“I am the WAY, the TRUTH, and the LIFE”

Supper, 5:15 * Classes for all ages, 6:15

W.A.Y. Kick-off - Sunday September 13, following service!*The W.A.Y. begins Wednesday, September 16!

Spark (Newborn - 3 year old) Nursery, room 208. Kids enjoy Bible stories, songs and games. In September these kids will be learning about Creation (Genesis 1:1-2:4a), Noah (Genesis 6-9), Abram's Call (Genesis 12:1-9).

Power Xpress (4 year old - Grade 5) Rooms 110 and 111. These students are divided into two ages groups and experience Bible stories through interactive rotation classes. September's units will be Creation (Genesis 1:1-2:4a) and Rebekah (Genesis 24; 25:19-26).

We Believe: With All Boldness and Freedom (Grades 6-8) Room 209. Teachers: Jana Schillinger and Dick Cochrane. This year students will work through the New Testament to gain the overall picture of the life of Jesus and the early church. Students begin by discovering the World of the New Testament (Acts 4:1-31) and studying the births of John and Jesus (Isaiah 7:10-16; Zechariah 9:1-10; Luke 1; Matthew 1).

PresbyYouth: Prophetic Calls For Justice (Grades 9-12; college age adults) Room 104. This course looks at the prophets' words of judgment and hope and their relevance to today's world. Students begin with Amos (Amos 8:4-6) and Hosea (Hosea 1-3; 11:8).

Talking About God Stuff (T.A.G.S.) Room 206. September 16-October 7: Banned: Questions About The Bible. Let's be honest, there are some pretty unusual and confusing things mentioned in the Bible. For instance, who did Cain marry if his parents were the first humans or why did God permit so much violence in the Old Testament? Join us as we seek to unravel some of the more confusing parts of Scripture. Feel free to bring some of your own questions to add to the conversation!

Faith and Life Room 210. September 16-October 7: In The News: Racism and Marriage. How do we live together as Christians and the church when there are diverse perspectives on issues like these? We pray this will create space to address these topics and how we, as Christians, can respond and interact with them. The study begins with a look at racism and violence in America in light of the Baltimore riots, the South Carolina church shootings and burnings. Discussion then moves on to look at marriage in response to the Supreme Court and PCUSA's decision to permit same-sex marriage.

Wednesday Supper Reservations

Light Supper is served before The Way classes from 5:15-6:10 for those with reservations.
Suggested donation: $3 per person.

Please return reservation slips no later than Monday.
Slips can be placed in the basket near the phone in the kitchen or in the offering plate.
You may also call the church office to make reservations.

Reservations slips can be found in the church office, in the kitchen, or in pews.

As part of the Wednesday evening activities, the choirs of the First Presbyterian Church will be starting practices in September.

September 9 - Adult Choir - (7:15 - 8:30 pm) Our adult choir is the primary choir, supporting our worship every Sunday and other events and activities. It is open to all who are interested in worshipping God with music. There are no tryouts or auditions. The adult choir welcomes teens (Grade 8 and above) who wish to join with the adults.

September 16 - Chapel Choir (5:30 - 6:10 pm) - This is our youth choir for children from kindergarten through grade 7. In this choir, children begin to learn about church music and the role of music in worship while learning basics of choral singing, in a fun and age-appropriate setting. We look forward to returning members and would love to see our ranks swell with new singers! For more information, please contact Kay at kayt1085@gmail.com or phone/text 570-313-0146.

September 16 - Handbell Choir- (8:30 - 9:15 pm) The handbell choir features a 3½ octave set of Malmark bells and choir chimes, and joins in worship once a month. We welcome all who can read music. Ringers will learn ringing techniques while learning a broad variety of sacred handbell music.

Pipes and Ranks and Divisions . . . Oh, My!

Submitted by Kay Ten Eyck

What kind of pipe has ears, a mouth, an upper lip, a lower lip and a beard? A pipe from a pipe organ, of course!

It has been fifteen years since our Moller organ was fully rebuilt and the Worship, Music and Arts Committee would like to celebrate this milestone. After the service on October 25th, gather around the organ to find out a little of the history of pipe organs in general, how an organ works, and explore some of the sounds that are unique to the instrument. John Conklin will be on hand to assist anyone who would like to visit the pipe chamber.

We hope our “ranks” will “swell” for a “great” afternoon!

Helpers Needed!

The W.A.Y. is looking for people to help with our meals. You are welcome to help once in a while, once a month, or whenever you are able!

You can help by:

- Cooking or helping to cook a main dish
- Providing a salad      Providing a dessert
- Helping with setup      Helping with cleanup

If you can help, please contact the church office at 570-586-6306.

3rd Grade Bible Presentation

Sunday, September 13

Come celebrate with us as we present Bibles to all our children in third grade.

If you have a third grader, be sure he or she is present to receive a Bible.

MISSION AND JUSTICE

Post Foster Care Program Donation

In late June, I had the pleasure of giving Tammy Marcinkevick of United Neighborhood Center's Post Foster Care Program a check in the amount of $8500.00, representing the third and final disbursement of the Mission and Justice component of the Centennial Capital Campaign.

UNC's Post Foster Care Program works with Lackawanna County Children and Youth, who identify children that have aged out of the Foster Care Program and are at highest risk for dropping through life's cracks. The program teaches the life skills needed (i.e. how to apply for and keep a job; how to budget; how to cook; obtain a high school diploma/GED; apply to college) for the successful transition to productive adulthood.

Tammy runs PFCP and has been thrilled with the flexibility our donations have allowed the program. Basic needs, such as rent, are covered by state grants. However, State guidelines for what the money can be used for are very strict. As all parents reading this are aware, no matter how diligently you budget, there are expenses that "pop" up with teenagers. There is a gap between what the grant provides and what is needed. Some examples of what our contribution has been able to provide: child care for working parents; a prom dress for a senior in high school; and new clothes for a young woman who is winning her battle with obesity by safely losing weight. There is one participant currently waiting on acceptance to a local college with a dorm room in her future.

On behalf of the Mission and Justice Committee and PFCP, thank you for your support of this worthy endeavor.

Linda Frangos

Pentecost Offering

$816 was collected in our church for the Pentecost Offering. 60% of that is sent to the Presbyterian Mission Agency. 40%, or $326.40, is given locally to a ministry for young people. This year, the Mission & Justice Committee chose to give our portion to the Northeast Suicide Prevention Initiative, and decided to round the donation to $350. Thank you for your participation in this special offering.

Leith and Carol Fujii

We were pleased to welcome Leith and Carol Fujii to our church on Sunday, July 26. Leith preached the sermon, then spoke with about 25 people in Fellowship Hall about their mission work in Thailand.

My Brothers' Keeper Quilting Group

The fall season is gearing up, and My Brothers' Keeper quilting group will have its first session on September 22, 10:00 AM to Noon. We are starting later in the month than usual so everyone may participate in the Relax/Relate/Renew program on the 15th.

We want to thank everyone who has donated items to our group. The sheets, towels, blankets, personal items, scarves, hats, mittens, ties, etc. are what allows us to do this ministry for the homeless. Please continue to think of us. Bless you for your gifts.

AFTER-SCHOOL SNACK

Enjoy this healthy apple snack after a busy day of learning.

What you need:

- Apple
- Apple corer (optional)
- Peanut butter (or other spread)
- Pecan pieces
- Shredded coconut
- Chocolate chips

What you do:

1. If you have an apple corer, remove the core. Then slice apple into thin rings. (If you don't have a corer, slice into rings first and then remove the core.)
2. Spread peanut butter across one side of each ring.
3. Sprinkle with pecans, coconut and chocolate chips.
4. Enjoy with a glass of milk!

STAY NOURISHED

Eating nutritious foods such as apples helps keep our bodies healthy. But Proverbs tells us about other important sources of "nourishment."

Directions: Use the words in the apples to complete Proverbs 3:7-9, NIV.

Do not be  in your own  ;
 the  and shun  .
 This will bring  to your
 and nourishment to  bones.
 the LORD  your wealth,
 with the firstfruits of  your .

PROVERBS 3:7-9, NIV

Answer: Do not be wise in your own eyes; fear the LORD and shun evil. This will bring health to your body and nourishment to your bones. Honor the LORD with your wealth, with the firstfruits of all your crops.

Joys and Sorrows

Sympathy of congregation is extended to

Bob Dygert and his family upon the recent passing of his daughter, Nancy Mayer;

Lois Stoeckel's family as her son-in-law, James O'Day (Pam's husband) passed away suddenly in August;

Bill Carter and his family at the loss of his father, Glenn Carter, during July.

On August 9, Eloise Bonnie Delaney was baptized in our sanctuary by Rev. Carter. Eloise is the daughter of Sean and Lucy Delaney, and the granddaughter of Patti and Russ Delaney.

THANK You to everyone who donated towards our VBS snacks. Your generosity was greatly appreciated.

From the Snack Team of
Carol, Janet & Mary.

The beautiful flowers (from our congregation, officers, and staff) were very much appreciated as well as the wonderful support to Bill, our family, and me. Thank you.
Ann Carter

A simple "thank you" is so inadequate to express gratitude to my church family for their many acts of kindness during my recent surgery and recovery. Cards, phone calls, visits, meals and flowers were received with joy and amazement from so many - especially the Deacons and Dorcas Circle - and my appreciation is unbounded. So, lacking more adequate words, I simply say "thank you" to each of you.
Nancy Ford

I would like to thank the congregation for all your prayers, phone calls and offerings of all types of help during my operations. Thank you very much!
Chuck Woolever

Oh, how grateful we are! The power of your continuing prayers surround John, Melissa and Phoebe. They see signs of daily healing, strength to retrain muscles, and hope for recovery. Your gifts of love and concern help them experience God's love. On behalf of our children and grandchildren, we thank you.
John and Myrna Diven

I want to thank all my wonderful friends who sent me birthday cards. Many of you are in my daily prayers. I miss all of you. Thank you.
Pauline Heckman

From Susan Kelly

I would like to thank all who organized and attended the coffee hour on August 9. I appreciate being appreciated! It was so nice to have a chance to visit with you all (until I return on Labor Day!) and I am grateful for the many good wishes expressed in cards, conversation, and song. And, while I will be surprised if I have opportunity to wear the blond wig, play bluegrass banjo, or cook from the Paula Deen cookbook, I have to confess that the yodeling CD has not left my car CD player since Sunday. It's amazing!!!

All joking aside, I am most grateful for having the blessing of making music with this church for the past sixteen years. It has been a wonderful journey, filled with music, laughter (way too much laughter), and friendship. Through it all you have become my church family, so I will never be far.

Much love—
Susan
