Christmas Eve Services

Join us for worship on Christmas Eve

In the morning of December 24, we will gather for our weekly worship service at 10:00 a.m. Through December, Rev. Carter will preach a sermon series on “Have Yourself a Spiritual Little Advent.”

At 6:30 p.m. we welcome children and their families for a special service planned with them in mind. We sing our favorite carols and retell the Christmas story in a fresh and engaging way. This year, we have heard that three of the Bethlehem shepherds are coming to visit us.

Our 9:00 p.m. service is a traditional Lessons and Carols service with our Adult Choir leading us in the singing of carols. Rev. Carter will preach, and we conclude by lighting candles to “Silent Night”.

The 11:00 p.m. service is a joyful and informal jazz communion for Christmas. It is our syncopated celebration with the Presbybop Christmas Eve Band. What a fun way to welcome the birth of Christ!

We will worship on Sunday, December 31, with a special New Year’s Eve service at 10:00 a.m.

Celebrate with us on Sunday, December 3

We welcome the season of Advent with a “Hanging of the Greens” gathering. It is a pre-Christmas party for all ages.

We will decorate our church for Christmas immediately after worship (about 11 a.m.).

A simple soup lunch will be served at 12:00 noon. All are welcome!

From the Pastor
December 2017

"In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered." (Luke 2:1)

Our Christmas story begins with a political decree. That's a striking detail, often overlooked in our rush to move to the manger. Far from the region of Judea, a pagan politician ordered a census. The purpose was not to fix gerrymandered districts nor to distribute funds to those in greater need. Rather it was to expand the tax system, probably to help finance the billeting of Roman soldiers that occupied Judea.

Some scholars believe that peasants and artisans (like the carpenter Joseph) had as much as half of their income consumed by Roman taxes. These taxes were imposed without representation, collected by local collaborators with the empire, and enforced by the sword. It's hard to imagine this. The closest analogy to my experience is the imperial oppression depicted in the first couple of Star Wars movies; even that is difficult to fathom in real life.

Yet this was the situation under which Jesus was born. Throughout the Mediterranean world there was a cruel tyrant, an oppressive regime, a system of unfairness and cruelty, all run by violence. . . "and unto us a child is born, a son is given."

In telling the birth of Jesus, Luke does not directly criticize the empire. If Caesar's minions had noticed that, they would have smacked him down. But the account of our savior's birth gives a clear alternative to the way the world worked - and still works. It is the way of humility, the humility of God.

As the British cleric J. B. Phillips wrote,

"It is fifteen hundred years ago that this apparently invincible Empire utterly collapsed, and all that is left of it is ruins. Yet the little baby, born in such pitiful humility and cut down as a young man in his prime, commands the allegiance of millions of people all over the world. Although they have never seen him, he has become friend and companion to innumerable people. This undeniable fact is, by any measurement, the most astonishing phenomenon of human history. It is a solid rock of evidence that no agnostic can ever explain away." ("The Dangers of Advent")

What we celebrate in December is a world-shaking truth: that God has come and been found among us. His birth, life, death, and resurrection still offer an alternative to the brutal ways of the world. Jesus offers salvation - a saving from ourselves - and blessed are those who become as humble as he.

With you in the journey,

Rev. Bill

Building and Grounds Paving Update November 2017

Frank Garnecki

We are pleased to report that the paving project is completed. The problem areas in upper and lower lots were repaired & sealed, drainage was improved, foundation leakage stopped, and 3 handicapped spaces were paved. In addition, Nick Stanley, the owner of the paving company "N Stanley Paving, Inc." in Dalton (570) 587-8989, donated over $1000 worth of time, labor, and materials for repairs not included in original quote, including double sealing, resealing the back lot, and filling cracks under the front curb. It is always a pleasure to find good people who do quality work and have a charitable heart.

Also: if your favorite contractor is busy or you just want to get a few more quotes for a home project, you can call Mario Diana at (570) 241-1266. He helped us obtain paving bids. He has 20+ years experience with DPW, and knows dozens of local contractors in every field. He is always willing to give his time, is reliable, and places great emphasis on quality workmanship and materials.

On the Road with My Brothers' Keeper Quilts!

Marie Cochrane

On November 8th, several members of the My Brothers' Keeper Quilting group took a road trip to Hop Bottom to deliver the thirteen sleeping bags made during the Worship through Service workday of September 25th, and the regular Second & Fourth Tuesday work sessions of MBK.

We were able to share coffee and sweets with Flo and Jim Wheatley, founders of the My Brothers' Keeper movement; their daughter, Marge; niece, Maureen; and friend, Ann, at their regular Wednesday work day. It was good timing, as there was need of 150 sleeping bags at a local shelter. Please join us December 12 at 10 AM, for the next MBK work session.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN CIRCLE BIBLE STUDIES

Mary Ellen Lawlor

Our December lesson is "In Community with God's messengers." What a perfect time of the year to be studying about angels and Christ's superiority to the angels. While it's unlikely first century Christians celebrated Christmas as we do today, they most likely knew about angels as God's messengers from the Old Testament and had possibly heard of God's message by the angels at Christ's birth. Come and study about the angels and God's messengers for us today. If you have an "angel pin" feel free to wear it. Times and places for the December Circle meetings will be announced in the church bulletin or by phone call. All ladies are invited to join our time of Christmas fellowship. If you have any questions please contact Barbara Pitman at 587-2050, Bonnie Plantholt at 570-586-0963 or Kate Hopkins at 570-587-2390. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

Mission and Justice Committee Activities

Alternative Gift Market

Robin Pinches

The Alternative Gift Market for 2017 was well attended with gifts purchased totaling $2501.52.

The entities supplying items for sale included Serrv, Heifer International, Reaching the Pygmies Ministry, Appalachia Service Project (ASP), PCUSA Coffee, and a new artisan this year, Calice Michelet, who provided colorful paintings depicting his native Haitian culture.

Thank you to all who participated in this year's gift market, and also to those members who worked to make it a success.

Bethel AME

Melba Fialko

We received the following message from Bethel AME Church regarding their cold shelter.

"We at Bethel AME are sad to announce that we will be unable to open the cold weather shelter for the 2017-2018 season. Thank you for all your support."

The Mission and Justice Committee will explore options to continue our support for the homeless in Scranton.

CEO Weinberg NE Regional Food Bank

Diane Scheuer, Mission and Justice

In conjunction with the church's Worship Through Service initiative, on September 23rd, eighteen members of our congregation traveled to the Weinberg Food Bank facility in Pittston Township to volunteer with the assembly of food boxes for distribution to qualifying senior citizens. Through the interaction with the energetic volunteer coordinator, Rich Piccolotti, the group was able to learn a great deal about the food bank facility and its ongoing operation. Due to the positive response of our church's participation, an additional volunteer day was organized on November 12th at another Weinberg Food Bank facility in Wilkes-Barre. Seventeen members of our church participated in the assembly and distribution of Thanksgiving food items. Approximately 1500 families received food on the day we volunteered. Members of our congregation have again expressed a strong interest in continuing with this vital effort. We hope to have Rich Piccolotti present a table talk at our church in January, and another volunteer day can be discussed at that time. Thank you to all who have helped with this worthwhile endeavor to serve disadvantaged members of our community.

Gifts of The Heart Kits

Melba Fialko

Thank you to all who contributed to the Gifts of the Heart Kits.

In October, 22 clean-up buckets, 51 School Kits, and 9 Health Kits were delivered to Church World Services. Also a donation of $75 was given to help defray shipping charges when they are sent to needed areas. The monetary value of our donation was $2,550. The value to those who receive them is priceless.

The Christmas Joy Offering

Melba Fialko

Advent asks us to open our hearts to God's love and grace. In response, Presbyterians have long given generously through the Christmas Joy Offering. This offering equally supports the Assistance Program of the Board of Pensions and racial ethnic schools and colleges of PCUSA.

Designated envelope can be found in your envelope box as well as in the pew racks. Thank you in advance for your consideration of this worthy offering.

Dear friends,

My family and I wish to thank the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church for their thoughts and prayers over the past almost two years during Fran's illness; especially, our thanks to the Deacons and others who furnished us with a meal a week. This fulfills the scripture: I was hungry, and you fed me.

We will always be grateful.
