Winners of the American Prize in Chamber Music, the group has been praised for their "beautiful sounds" (American Record Guide), "fine playing" (Gramophone), and "staggeringly high caliber of performance" (Textura). On behalf of the Dalton Food Pantry, I would like to thank the parishioners of First Presbyterian Church for your recent donation of $410. Your donation will be used to purchase the food we need to continue this very important ministry. I cannot thank you enough for your continued support. We couldn't help our families without the generosity of our community. The Pantry is open on Monday evenings and serves families in Abington Heights and Lackawanna Trail School Districts.

Sincerely,

Nancy Thompson, Pantry Coordinator

From the Pastor

April 2025

It was twenty-five years ago but seems like yesterday. One day in Lent, my father and I walked the Via Dolorosa with a tour group. According to tradition, that's the traditional path that Jesus walked on the way to his crucifixion. It weaves through the Old City of Jerusalem.

The narrow streets bustled with nervous energy. There was a shout, somebody pointed, and a man stumbled into the crowd. He carried a huge piece of lumber on his shoulders. Thugs on either side of him shook leather straps, compelling him forward. A woman clutched her rosary as the crowd began to chant in Italian.

Others seemed embarrassed by the spectacle and receded into the shadows. Some were curious and stood in silence to watch. A few cheered, others jeered. Our small party of visiting pilgrims had mixed responses to this reenactment of Christ's passion. "Is this necessary?" one asked, "I find it disturbing." Another admitted she was deeply moved. Someone else was crying.

The crucifixion story divides the house. It always has. Somebody said to me the other day, "It was God's will that Jesus die for us on the cross." But I was thinking of what Jesus says to the city of Jerusalem in the Gospel of Luke, "You did not recognize the time of your visitation from God" (19:44). Jesus died for our sins, yet he also died because of our sins. Our all-too-human enchantment with violence was part of the mix. To which Jesus responded, "Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing" (Luke 23:34).

What I remember from that moment in Old Jerusalem was not the play-acting of the crucifixion. It was the indifference surrounding it. Merchants were hawking their wares along the route. Many were selling pocket-sized crosses carved from olive wood, as if to say, "See the spectacle where it happened and take a little bit home with you." Others weren't paying much attention. Someone was scanning a map of the sites, trying to locate (this was the real name) "The Church of the Flagellation." I wonder if they had a gift shop.

What a mix of humanity! From this vantage point of years later, it is amazing to realize Christ loves them all. The pious, the indifferent, the self-righteous, the ignorant, and everybody in between. He gives his life for them, for all. He takes the abuse on his shoulders so that he can take it away. He suffers because of us – yet he comes back to claim us. Love so amazing, so divine, so deep that I can't quite take it all in.

And that's why we keep telling the story. Be sure to join us for Holy Week and Easter.

Rev. Bill

Wednesday Evening Opportunities

Adult Education meets on Wednesdays at 5:45 p.m., Room 206. Our Lenten study is called “An Acceptable Fast.” Based on the Old Testament lectionary readings for the season of Lent, Old Testament scholar Patricia Tull describes the biblical verses in their original context and then explores a key Lenten theme related to the text. Upcoming themes include: accepting responsibility, welcoming the future and trusting God in times of conflict.

All are welcome to join the weekly conversations. Also, the study materials will be available through the weekly e-mail from the church. Please download them at home and use them for your daily reflections!

Adult Choir rehearses at 7 p.m. in the Sanctuary. Bell Choir rehearses at 8 p.m. in Fellowship Hall.

Let Justice Roll Down: God’s Call to Care for Neighbors and All Creation by Patricia K. Tull
Tuesday, April 15, 10 a.m. in Fellowship Hall.

Join us for Lesson 8 as we deal with Intergenerational Justice. The biblical authors reflected midstream on the meaning of ancient Judah’s story with God. These writers didn’t know what the outcome would be, but they kept their hopes for their future alive for future generations. We, too, have a story with God, a story whose meaning is changing. Not only are we concerned about the environment, safety and fair distribution of food, clean and accessible water, air quality, and economic justice, but also, who is raising our children if both parents are working, how do we (parents and church people) school the next generation of children in the faith of our ancestors, and what situation are we leaving for those that follow us?

Men’s Breakfast and Bible Study meets for donuts and Bible study on the first and third Thursday of every month. They gather for conversation at 8:30 a.m. in the Session Room (206) and have their study from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. They are working through the Acts of the Apostles with Rev. Bill. All men in the church family are always welcome.

Christian Education: Growing in Faith and Love

Bible Time: Hear Bible stories told just for our young children during worship. We invite any kids age 4 to approx. grade 4 to join us after the anthem for learning and fun; we will return for prayers and the conclusion of service. April stories will include learning about God's forgiveness, Jesus entering Jerusalem, Easter, and recognizing the presence of Jesus.

We Worship Together series: A 30-minute program held after worship for children through grade 6. We Worship Together examines questions we have about church practices and traditions. Each family will receive a book to take home related to the topic discussed. What is a creed and why do we say it together during worship? What do the phrases in the Apostles' Creed mean? Our next program in the series will be held in two parts on May 4 & 11 to learn about the Apostles' Creed. Please plan to attend both classes.

We Believe: Faith foundations for our pre-confirmation age youth. A mix of Bible 101, faith questions, and church basics to help prepare children in grade 6 and up for their confirmation journey, We Believe will be a combination of discussions, activities, and self-study. Our next meeting is April 27 after worship. More information and current assignments can be found on our class website: <https://sites.google.com/view/fpcs-we-believe/>

LIFT: Living In Faith Together

As we conclude the Lenten season, join us after worship on Sunday, April 13 for a Seder celebration as our meal and intergenerational program. Families with children as well as congregants of all ages are invited.

Learn about the traditional Passover feast, a remembrance of the Exodus from Egypt and the holiday which brought Jesus to Jerusalem for what we now call Holy Week. For this special LIFT session, we would like to know if you are planning to attend. Please sign up in the Narthex or phone the church office (570-586-6306) to let us know you're coming.

Also, please save the date for our next LIFT program:

CEO WEINBERG FOOD BANK SERVICE DAYS – SPRING 2025

The Mission and Justice Committee is planning two mornings of service at Monsignor McGowan Center for Healthy Living (CEO Weinberg Northeast Regional Food Bank) in Pittston on May 10, 2025 and June 21, 2025 from 9:00 AM – 12:00 PM. Both days would entail packing monthly food boxes for qualifying senior citizens in an assembly line manner.

May 10 is unique in that we will be working with Boy Scouts already scheduled, and we may take only 10 volunteers. Diane will form the list as she is contacted.

The June 21 date will be just our group from FPCCS.

Carpooling will be available for both events, leaving the church's side parking lot at 8:30 AM.

If you are interested in participating on either of these dates, please contact Diane Scheuer at 570-362-3276 or divinends@gmail.com. It is always a fun and rewarding experience.

April 2025 Volunteer Corner

This month the spotlight is on the volunteers of My Brother's Keeper Quilting Group. Established in 1992 by Pauline Heckman and friends, the group is going strong 33 years later!

Marie Cochrane, the group's leader since 2014, was quick to give credit to the 16 active members and 8 associate members and to those who have lent a hand with "behind the scenes" details: Sewers Bonnie Lesko and Edie Suydam, Jeanne Comley and Mary Ellen Lawlor who prepare toiletry packets and Linda Weaver who transports the finished products to Keystone Mission. Some members also knit hats and gloves which are also donated to Keystone Mission for distribution.

How many sleeping bags have they created through the years? Sooooo many! In 2024 alone they made 93!

Interested in joining the group? MBK welcomes new "quilters". They meet on the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of each month from 10:00 to Noon in Fellowship Hall. You don't need to have any quilting experience. The only skill you need to bring along is the ability to tie a knot and sew a running stitch.

Not a sewer? If you'd like to help in other ways, you can donate materials. If you get in touch with Marie, she can tell you exactly what they need.

Thank you to Marie and the members of the MBK Quilting Group for their service to our community. Their prayer says it all:

"Lord, take the work of our hands and bless it, and let the person who receives this gift know that he or she is loved."
